SOLD EVERYWHERE.

Minerva Mirillo

Is a mild and pleasant, but exceedingly effective aperient, keeping the blood pure, regulating the liver, clearing the complexion, removing gouty matter from the system, and generally warding off disease. Made from, and containing all the valuable properties of, ripe fruit. Prized by travelers, seafaring men, and residents in hot climates. A sure preventive of diarrhoea, and a delightful invigorator of the constitution. When used simply as an effervescent beverage, it has most salutary results. Valuable for all persons of sedentary habits, removing depression and head affections, and generally bracing up the nervous system.

Eye Witnesses to the Latest Crime of Pauahi St.

Preliminary Hearing at Once—Facts Given
By Japanese—Say the Wife
Was Sold for $40.

Chester A. Doyle took hold yesterday morning of the case of attempted murder and suicide developed in Pauahi street on Tuesday evening. Before night Mr. Doyle had secured three eye-witnesses to material circumstances of the affair. Those who saw the Japanese cut the throat of his wife and then try to open his abdomen with a pocket-knife, will tell about it under oath before Judge Wilcox, in District Court this morning. The man who tried for murder and hari-kari will be able to appear, though he is yet very sore. The woman is in a fair way for an early recovery, but will not be brought from the hospital for the preliminary hearing. The prisoner will be bound over for trial at the next term of Circuit Court, and there will be a hold upon the witnesses after the principal has been committed.

It is learned that the prisoner was on Tuesday actually aboard the steamer for Maui, with the intention of returning to Lahaina, from which place he had followed his wife first to Hilo and then to Honolulu. Something made him change his mind about leaving town, and he came up to the city, and by evening found the woman. The Japanese now say that the woman in the hospital is not the wife of the man in jail, though she was such at one time. The Japanese say that the fellow sold the woman for $40, and that the money was paid and that the transaction was regular throughout. Hence the feeling against the prisoner is stronger than is usually the sentiment against a Japanese charged with crime of any kind.

Remarkable fortitude was shown by the woman while on the operating table at the Queen's Hospital. Dr. Wood and his assistants worked rapidly and with skill, but there was much pain for the subject, and she bore it all without a groan.

SALVATION ARMY.

Capt. Maggie Powell Back From Hilo—Much Labor.

Capt. Maggie Powell, of the Salvation Army, has returned from Hawaii, where for the past four weeks she had taken the place of the Hilo captain, who was sick in the hospital with typhoid fever. The captain takes up her work again of visiting all the ships in port each week and distributing reading matter to the sailors, and along with her sister, the lieutenant, visiting hospital, jail, etc., as well as leading meetings every night (except Tuesday) in the hall, corner of King and Nuuanu streets. The meetings are being well attended here in spite of other attractions. Sunday night the hall was crowded, some 200 persons being present, representing every class of society. Great interest is manifested and a number of conversions are recorded.

The Waimoa, Kanai, Army workers, Misses Sharp and Elliot, have just taken three destitute orphan children into their own home until other arrangements can be made to care for them. In a recent open-air meeting five heathen Chinese came out publicly and professed Christ as their Savior, giving up their drinking, gambling and opium using, proving that the Gospel has not yet lost its power.

Some of the young sports of the town want the Jockey Club to announce a gentlemen's race, running, with owners up for July 4.

It is noticed that a dozen or more new buildings in the vicinity of the Nuuanu stream, near Kaunakapili church are much below the street grades.
